Dear Parent/ Guardian

RE: END OF SEMESTER TWO ACADEMIC YEAR 2020/2021

Greetings from Uganda Hotel and Tourism Training Institute (UHTTI), we thank God for sustaining all of us throughout this period of COVID 19 pandemic and for the successful completion of this semester which ends on Saturday 24th April, 2021. Our appreciation goes to you the parents and guardians for your continual support towards the smooth running of the Institute. We grieve with those who lost their dear ones due the pandemic and other causes may their souls RIP. The pandemic has brought a new norm of life which we have to continue to adhere to may we therefore keep SAFE by continuing to maintain the Standard operating procedures (SOPs). Please take note of the following:

1. Academics, Class attendance and Reporting to School:

First semester of Academic year 2021/2022 commences on 17th May 2021 and closes on 13th August 2021.

Semester TWO results will be pinned at the Institute's notice board at the beginning of semester one, students who will have not attained 50% pass mark in any course unit will have to retake when next offered, and those who fail more than a half of the total number of course units in a semester shall be required to repeat that semester.

Registration for students to sit any examination will continue to be based on full payment of Institute dues (Nil Balance) and attainment of 75% class attendance in any course unit as provided for in the rules issued on admission. All students MUST report to school in the first week of the semester without fail to allow effective coverage of the syllabus. Effective teaching will begin on Tuesday, 18th May 2021
